Details:

This house was constructed in 1930 and is situated in the centre of Sineu. It was completely restored for later use as a boutique-hotel in 2017 and is located only a few steps from the small town square with its diverse restaurants and bars.

Its living space of 480 sqm is spread over 2 levels, and is distributed over 8 double rooms and 2 studios, in part with panoramic views of the Tramuntana. One of the rooms on the ground floor is suitable for people with limited mobility.

In the entrance area is the bar and reception area, behind which is the breakfast room which has direct access to a 100 sqm terrace with a small pool. There is also a profession kitchen and a large storeroom and laundry room.

The hotel is already well-established, has a licence for the category 'interior tourism', and is in operation 365 days per year.
