Details:

This impressive new-build property is located in the picturesque mountain village of Galilea with its expansive views, fresh mountain air, restaurants and cycling and hiking trails.

The villa impresses with its combination of Mallorcan elements with ultra-modern design and comfort. The unobstructed views extend over the mountains to the sea in the bay of Santa Ponsa. The living areas are generously proportioned and allow you to enjoy luxurious living in peaceful surroundings.

One of the many amenities this villa offers is the possibility to reach all levels with a lift. As completion is planned for 2023, you can still influence the execution of the details in many areas..
