Details:

This traditional Mallorcan house dates from 1956, and is situated on the promenade of Colonis St. Jordi with the lovely sandy beach right in front of the door. Truly a very desirable and rare location.

Its living space of approx. 137 sqm is spread over 2 levels, although it would be possible to increase this in order to exploit the maximum potential if required. For example, a residential building with 3 floors, or a large detached house with pool and garden.

If you have ever dreamed of being able to see the Mediterranean from your bed, and to walk into the turquoise-blue sea whenever you want, then this exceptional property would be the perfect investment!
