Location & surrounding area:

Pollensa, known by insiders as the island's "second capital", exudes a very special, indeed regal, charisma. Located at the northern foothills of the Tramuntana mountain range, this romantic little town primarily offers a pleasant mountain panorama of Mt. Puig de Maria, which is a regional landmark. This unique spot is lent incomparable charm by the wealth of its cultural life, especially music, and its premium property locations, such as along the Calvario (Calvary Hill) in the middle of the town, or the peaceful and grand La Font villa district on the slope of the hill, and a magically beautiful rural setting above the adjacent valleys Vall D'en March, Vall D'Colonya and Vall D'Aixartell, offering many a gem which, together with the modern infrastructure, makes for the perfect holiday property. For those who love the concept of the Majorcan townhouse, Pollensa is exactly the right spot. There are many pretty little treasures to discover here, either completely renovated already, or providing scope for personal taste and creativity.
