Details:

A private approach road leads up to the highest point of Son Prohens where this stately property, situated on a small mountain, presents enchanting panoramic views. On the 16.371 sqm of land absolute tranquillity and privacy will be found. On one side the whole island can be seen as far as the Tramuntana mountains, and on the other side there are fantastic views as far as the sea and the island of Cabrera. A ridge of green hills, blending into the surrounding landscape, perfects the panorama.

Upon entering the finca you are received by the imposing entrance area, presenting 478 sqm of living space spread over 2 levels. After the entrance comes a comfortable living area leading to a cosy dining area and the separate, fully-equipped kitchen. A corridor in the entrance area leads to 2 light-flooded bedrooms each with en-suite bathroom. Every room has access to a large terrace.

A monumental Iroko-wood staircase leads to the upper floor with the large master-suite, a connecting room and a further bedroom. All rooms access the large surrounding terrace offering spectacular views of the island of Cabrera.

The Mediterranean-style garden impresses with its expansive pool area and a separate guest house, and from the generously-sized sun terrace the unbelievably beautiful surrounding nature can be fully enjoyed. From sunrise to the, often spectacular, sunsets an unbelievably lovely atmosphere can be experienced and mild summer evenings enjoyed together with friends and family in the BBQ zone.

Further features of this fantastic property include underfloor heating, air conditioning, and natural-stone floors.

Truly a unique purchase opportunity.
