Details:

Reserve beautiful part of Mallorca for yourself.

This property fascinates in terms of its diversity and beauty. It is a functioning agricultural business, and its very fertile soil produces fruit and vegetables, growing next to almond, olive, fig and hazelnut trees between which cattle, sheep and goats thrive. A true natural paradise with its own ample water source and quarry.

Its highlight is the beautiful, historic and well preserved finca building dating from the early 19th century, which still offers a great deal of development potential. Two more separate houses could be built making a possible total of 27 hotel guest rooms. A license for agritourism has been applied for.

Guests at the hotel would be able to ride horses, and go jogging, mountain biking and cycling without leaving the property, and the sea and the beautiful natural beach of Son Serra de Marina are only a few minutes drive away.
