Details:

This charming finca is situated in a quiet yet central location in Porto Colom.

You enter this property and feel a certain Mediterranean flair. To the right is a bright bedroom, which was last used as an office. This is followed by a bathroom and a further bedroom.

The living and dining area is cozy and invites you to linger. An open fireplace invites you to spend cozy hours here alone or with friends in the cooler months. From here, you can also access the large, newly renovated bathroom with a free-standing bathtub, shower and concealed light strips. You can choose between different colors for the latter, turning the entire bathroom into a wellness oasis. An open kitchen with integrated skylight and access to a pantry completes this level.

Two steps lead up to a separate guest wing with living area, double bedroom and bathroom. Your guests can feel at home here. From everywhere you can enjoy a view of the Mediterranean garden with its spacious pool area and several terraces.

Another advantage is the separate and fully equipped guest house.

The highlight is the very large roof terrace on the main building with an unbeatable panoramic view of the hilly landscape of Felanitx (San Salvador monastery) or the beautiful sea view and fantastic sunsets leave nothing to be desired. The finca has been lovingly renovated in large parts, a smaller part still needs a little sprucing up (the photos do not correspond to the current condition in parts). Please ask for a video.

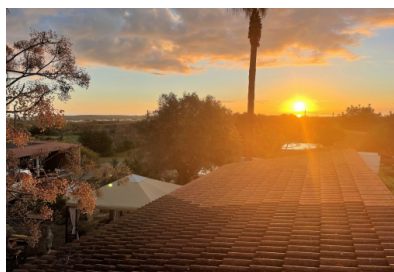

Further advantages of this beautiful property:

- Carport for 4 vehicles
- Oil central heating, underfloor heating in the renovated parts
- Various storage options for garden furniture, bicycles, etc.

We look forward to receiving your inquiries, all the necessary paperwork is available for inspection by the relevant authorities.
