Details:

This spectacular loft in Son Macià combines modern design, high-quality furnishings and an absolutely privileged location with incomparable views across the island - all the way to Cap Formentor. The property was built in 2002 and extensively renovated in 2021. It is now available for rent until the end of May.

The open-plan loft has two double beds and two separate bathrooms. The room concept is spacious and flooded with light, with clean lines and stylish minimalism. Particularly noteworthy is the panoramic view - one of the most beautiful in the region - which can be enjoyed both from the interior and from the terrace.

The charming, German-speaking owners also live on the property, but privacy in the loft is guaranteed at all times. The well-kept pool area is available for shared use.

There is also the option of renting a separate small guest house on the same property - ideal for 2-3 people.

All utilities are included in the rental price, such as electricity, water, Wi-Fi and all other running costs.
