Details:

This high-quality three-storey newly built town house is located in a prime central position in the heart of Felanitx, just a few steps from the market hall. The property combines modern living with a practical layout and generous outdoor space.

Felanitx is a lively yet authentic town in the southeast of Mallorca, well known for its traditional character, weekly market, cafés, restaurants and excellent infrastructure. The location offers a perfect balance between urban life and easy access to the beaches and natural landscapes of the east coast.

The house offers approx. 150 sqm of living space, is rented unfurnished and is available for first occupancy. The ground floor comprises a spacious living area, a new kitchen with all electrical appliances, and a guest toilet.

A special highlight is the approx. 50 sqm elongated patio with a small outbuilding, ideal for use as a utility and storage room.

The first floor features two bedrooms and a bathroom with shower.
The third floor offers the master bedroom with a high level of privacy.

Air conditioning units (hot/cold) will be installed according to the future tenant's wishes.
